RACING AT HARLEM.

Harlem's program was rearranged, the third race (1 mile and 20 yards) being declared off, the fourth race moved up and the fifth split in order to make the advertised six races. It was said that Eddie Jones had a chill and that trainer McCormick scratched him in consequence. The day was very warm and disagreeable but the usual crowd attended the races.

For the curtain-raiser Gauntlet, Burns & Waterhouse's colt, was made an even-money favorite by reason of the fact that at Washington Park (his first start) he had finished fourth. "Dope students" said: "If he improves five pounds over that race he will do." Galathee, at 2 to 1, stood next in favor, the only question being whether or not he could carry 118 pounds. Gauntlet won the race, but did not finish first, Prince McClurg being rightly disqualified for fouling Galathee at the last sixteenth post. Willie Howard, off in front, was raced by Gauntlet, he followed by Galathee. The others were strung out around the upper turn, Foxnette being last. A general closing up in the home stretch, and at the last sixteenth the race was a hot one, with Gauntlet fighting to beat Galathee, this pair leading. Now Turner brought Prince McClurg up on the outside and, just as full of run, McGuigan's colt passed Galathee. He swung across toward the inside rail forcing Everett to pull up. Prince McClurg won by several open lengths, the others appearing to be jarred by Galathee and so hanging on their stride. Foxnette was so close to Volandies and Galathee that her trainer thought she had beaten the latter.

Little Singer, getting off on the outside to such a perfect start that Mr. Dwyer gracefully lifted his cap in response to the applause from the grand stand, was hustled around the bend, and at the three-eighths took the lead from Necedah and Hessville. And that was the last of the others' chances, as Bloss waited along beautifully in front, and when Tonto, close in made play, the best this well backed horse could do was to finish second, as Little Singer had plenty left and came away. Winslow was a close third. Swordsman, under punishment most of the journey, ran into the bunch in front as the last turn was made. J. W. Gates' agent bet Marcus Cartwright $100 each way place and show at 25 and 4 on Little Singer.

Through some carelessness the names of the horses on program and bookmaker's slip did not follow in like rotation, and thereby great inconvenience was caused.

The four horses were off abreast in the next race. Thorpe at once took Candelaria back and up the back stretch he was lying alongside Sunburst three lengths behind Charley Christy and Elusive paired. Sunburst gave it up on the far turn and Candelaria came into the straight three lengths behind the leaders. Everyone was looking for Charley Christy to stop, as the impression has been that he runs best from behind, but he now showed the qualities of the proverbial cat, never came back, but ran home like a wild horse, many lengths to the good. Candelaria beat Elusive in a drive. One bookmaker laid 20 against 100 that the favorite could not get a place.

Elsie G. Boney Boy and Stamina ran farthest at the several breakaways. Eva Wilson was in front when the flag fell but Tommy Burns shot the favorite to the fore on the turn and riding him a trifle at the last eighth post Boney Boy came on and won from Elsie G. The Dragon finishing third. Eva Wilson died off rapidly the last quarter. Stamina was far back a quarter away from the wire but ran fast thereafter, finishing close up. Major Eskridge made a fair showing.

Guess Me belied her name as there was no doubt about her winning after the first furlong. She never extended leading from there out. Miss Marks was second at the entrance of the home stretch, The Kentuckian and Sea Lion close up, all others already beaten off. The Kentuckian got the place easily, while it took the judges decision to separate Miss Marks and Sea Lion, the latter securing third money.

Meddler got off on the outside with a bulge and rounding the first turn took the lead from Roger B. He was second for an instant to Albert S at the half mile ground, but opened a big gap on the upper turn. Nothing pushed him at the finish but Roger B, which horse he easily shook off. Prosecutor, third, ran a good race at the end. Midian seemed to lack speed and could never head the second division until the last eighth.

Col. Clark seems determined to not let the jockeys interfere with one another, and called the quartet to the stand as the horses went to the post for the third race.

Eugene Leigh was differed $650 by the foul of Prince McClurg, which horse he had backed.

One day at Washington Park Chris Smith complimented Col. M. Lewis Clark, saying "You are the best racing judge on earth." Yesterday the former owner of Yo Tambien had $50 against $2,000 on the disqualified Prince McClurg but when asked "How now about the Colonel?" replied, "He's all right, only I wish he hadn't been looking."

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

The success of the Bromley stable this season is very gratifying to the firm and should be to all true lovers of the turf. Last year nearly everything in their large stable went wrong or had bad luck of some kind. Although they had high class horses they did not seem to be able to win any kind of a race.

This season almost every member of their big string that has started has won or captured something in their large stable went wrong or had bad luck of some kind. Although they had high class horses they did not seem to be able to win any kind of a race.

The always pleasant Saratoga meeting begins tomorrow under favorable circumstances. The stables are full of horses from all parts of the country. The ring is free to all comers at the odd figure of $57 per day. The Saratoga hotels are unusually well patronized this year owing to a great falling off in the number of holiday seekers who but for the war would be in Europe and various other elements combine to forecast a successful meeting.

It is said that the only horse Ed Gardner ever bred that he will not sell is Bangle. When this colt was a 2-year-old, Gardner thought in him he had the grandest racehorse ever foaled. On the day when Bangle won the Drexel Stakes at Washington Park, Gardner wired his friends at St. Louis, "Bet on Bangle."

The 4-year-old The Chemist is apparently the best sprinter now running at St. Louis, and is evidently smart enough to win over the Chicago tracks if judiciously placed. Of his career at the Fair Grounds the Republic says: "The Chemist has started thirteen times at the Fair Grounds this year and placed nine purses to the credit of his owner. Of these seven were won in so many consecutive starts. He ran second once to Ed Farrell and was unplaced once. The first time he went to the post he fell down and failed to finish. The Chemist was a fair sort of a 2-year-old. Last year he was a confirmed cripple and failed to stand training. Brewer Schorr owns a full brother of The Chemist called The Druggist, who is a 3-year-old maiden. Leostratus, the speedy but faint-hearted 2-year-old now racing at the Fair Grounds, is also a full brother of The Chemist."

"Tony" Licalzi has learned a few things since Bill Scully and "Cy" James made him a present some years ago at New Orleans of Ormie, a horse that later the same season beat Scully's stake mare, Hypocrite, at Washington Park. Tony afterwards gave away a good horse. The first season there was running races at Milwaukee he left Farley, a fair selling plate sprinter, with Secretary Fleming. "Let him run out," said the proprietor of "The Watermelon Stable." And Mr. Fleming "babied" the animal for a year and then started him as "fat as a bull." One hundred to one was Farley's price, but he showed speed, and before the meeting closed was winning races. So Tony got the horse back and last year made money with him. It is said that for two years or more Licalzi has trained his own horses. He surely has bread-winners in Lady Ellerslie and Al Fresco.

It is said Tod Sloan has been offered a retainer of $25,000 for next season for the first call on his services by Mr. Simons, a South African millionaire, now going in largely for racing. Lord William Beresford denies he tendered for Sloan's services, as under the arrangements made by him on dissolving partnership with Pierre Lorillard his horses will be ridden by jockeys attached to March's stable, where he will train next season.

It is rumored that John Hyland will handle the Whitney-Paget stable next season with Hogan, who now trains, to look after the jumpers exclusively. Of course Hyland will continue to train Mr. Belmont's horses for the remainder of this season, and it may be that the engagement will be renewed.—New York Journal.

The crack Australian three-year-old, Aurum, which Mr. Jersey (Mrs. Langtry) recently purchased from W. R. Wilson, has reached Newmarket, England, where the son of Trenton will be trained by Fred Webb. The colt arrived in the Damascus, which also conveyed two other Australian colts, Coronation and Borgia, both the property of Mr. W. Webb. Coronation is said to have been the best two-year-old that had raced in Queensland.

STAKES FOR HAWTHORNE.

In the advertising department of DAILY RACING FORM today will be found the conditions of ten valuable stakes opened by the Chicago Racing Association, entries to which close August 4. The names of the events will sound familiar to those who recall the racing of other days over the Hawthorne track. They all present an endowment fully up to the standard of the day and such as should, and no doubt will, secure entries of all the good horses now in Chicago. No very great length of time is left in which to make entries, but fortunately it is now the time of the year when horses are at their best and owners of well tried material do not have to study long over the problem of what racers in their strings will do to enter for the big events of the turf and selections for entry are easy to make.

A FAMOUS TURFMAN'S FORTUNES.

"Lucky" Baldwin's financial affairs are said to be looking up. His business partner in mining ventures, the artist Cross, now in Chicago, says that the California millionaire has recently sold an unworked gold mine he has owned for years near San Bernardino for $500,000 to an English syndicate, and that other foreign capitalists are negotiating for a big ranch of Baldwin's, intending to make beet sugar and that for this "Lucky" will get nearly two millions of dollars, enough money to remove all the "plasters" on his large estates.

It is said that Mr. Baldwin owns more good land than any man in the United States, some 60,000 acres in all. His home ranch, Santa Anita, comprises 22,000 acres. It is fourteen miles from the ocean and 1,400 feet above the sea level. The old adobe house, of immense proportions, built on the place by the Spaniards, is still standing, although the proprietor has an elegant modern residence to live in, around which the trees and flowers are dreams. On this ranch Mr. Baldwin has spent nearly two millions of dollars in piping for irrigation, and the prevalent drought cannot injure him greatly. There are 15,000 lemon trees on the place, and the fruit of these last year went to rot because of hard times and no sale. There are also 25,000 English walnut trees, while the extent of the vineyards can be guessed from a shipment of forty carloads of wine the other day.

Before the depression in prices Mr. Baldwin's wealth was estimated at $17,000,000. At Santa Anita he has thousands of draught horses and mules and on another ranch 20,000 head of sheep. His thoroughbred stock numbers over 500 head, whose quality may be discovered from the list of American Derby winners Volante, Emperor of Norfolk, Silver Cloud and Rey el Santa Anita having borne the "Black with Maltese Cross" to the front in that great racing event, while Miss Ford ran second to C. H. Todd. Mr. Baldwin at an early day bought through the late secretary of Washington Park, John E. Brewster, the stallions—four mile heat horses taken to California for racing purposes—Rutherford and Grinstead, and buying for small money eight Glenelg mares the California stock farm returned for each a first-class race horse.

Time and again "Lucky" Baldwin has announced his retirement from the turf, but Mr. Cross says that now "Lucky," at the age of 73 years, contemplates a raid next winter on the tracks at San Francisco and that he will be seen racing there with winning material. This will be good news to lovers of racing because say what one might about the old capitalist, no breath of suspicion ever was raised about whether or not the horses carrying his famous colors were "out for the money" and the public has won more on his animals than on those of any other American.

THE GAME AT "THE BEACH."

There seems to be a greater fascination about the Brighton Beach meeting than ever before, and the attendance each day is away above the standard. The regulars have found it much easier to keep in the game than heretofore, as the winning percentage has favored them to an unexpected extent, and the money has been kept in equable circulation. Favorites have been more consistently prominent than at any other meeting this year, and, although there were a few serious upsets that savored of the palmy days of the "beachcombers" backers on the whole have probably fared much better than at Sheephead Bay, Gravesend or Morris Park. Even on Saturday last, when only one favorite scored, the ring claimed to have lost money, and the story is quite plausible in view of the fact that a large percentage of the visitors seemed to know all about the winning qualities of Frohman, Capt Sigsbee, Rondo, Komurasaki, Tut Tut and Beaufort.—New York Sun.

Post 8 minutes. Start good. Won handily; the next three were driving. Prince McClurg was the best and only bad racing luck kept him from getting the purse. There was a lot of jostling on the turn and it was caused by the Prince. Through it Galathee and Volandies suffered the most. When the interference occurred Gauntlet was beaten, and as the finish came he was extremely lucky to be second. Had there been no jostling Prince McClurg would have won and Volandies would have been second. The latter ran a cracking good race and should be closely watched. From a bad beginning and under a poor ride Foxnette did well. Galathee was hemmed in and interfered with all the way. Willie Howard was raced into submission by Gauntlet. Ed Tipton looked high in flesh and ran far from a good race. Facadie had little or no speed.

7383 SECOND RACE—1 Mile. 3-year-olds and upward. Selling.

Post 4 minutes. The start was perfect and one of the prettiest ever seen. It was a driving finish and Bloss helped Little Singer wonderfully in the last twenty yards. The filly was very tired and just lasted long enough. Tonto, well ridden and free from interference, ran his race. He was coming strong at the end. Winslow, outrun as usual the first part of it, was running great guns at the end. Swordsman and Inconstancy were badly interfered with on the stretch turn. The latter seemed to have a winning chance at that point, but was obliged to pull up. Necedah ran a good race. She was bumped into and interfered with at every turn. It seems as if Conley's only way to win a race is to get away in front and be clear all the way. The other boys appear to go out of the way to interfere with him.

Overweights—Inconstancy, 24 pounds.

Post 16 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second and third driving to the limit. There was nothing to the race but Boney Boy. He certainly was far the best. Burns used him much at the post, but the colt was good and it seemed to have little or no effect on him. After Eva Wilson retired Boney Boy came on and won as he pleased. Elsie G, under Newcom, acted nicely at the post and ran a clever race. She, like Boney Boy, was prominent in all breakaways. The Dragoon had a lot of trouble in the race. He was bumped into and jostled shortly after the start and was carried wide on the turn. Barring accidents, he would have been second. Little Reiff was hardly strong enough to do Stamina justice. The colt was just bobbing all the way. Eva Wilson must have been short. She got away flying, and that is the only excuse she has for not being closer up.

Overweights—Eva Wilson, 4 pounds; Major Eskridge, 4.

Off at first break to a good start. Won pulled up; second and third were driving. Charley Christy was far the best. He just galloped all the way. This fellow is an honest horse and will be hard to beat from now on. He almost always runs a good race. Candelaria, well ridden and saved the first part of it, finished strong. He deserves attention from now on. Elusive hardly ran to the notch. Her race was far below the performance Saturday in the Wheeler Handicap. On the strength of it she was made favorite. Sunburst was outclassed and finished where he belonged.

Post 10 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second whipped out; third and fourth were driving hard. Guess Me was good after her rest. She was much used at the post, but was fit and ready and it had no effect on her. She got away flying and hugged the rails all the way. This is a filly of remarkable speed. The Kentuckian had extremely bad racing luck. He was shut off on the turn after the start and really never got into his stride until the stretch was reached. This colt is a long strider and will probably do better over a distance of ground. Burns hustled Sea Lion all the way. He took the short route and rode a good race. Miss Marks suffered from bad handling. She was in and out and all over the track. Jockey Joe is a big, fine looking colt. Speedy Cass is well named. He is fast, but has little or no endurance.

Post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second well in hand; third and fourth doing their best. Meddler had the speed of the party and it was well used. Shields got a running start but did not pump the gelding out during the early stage of the race. He rated him nicely in front and rode a clever race. Meddler's price was certainly out of line. He has been racing with a better lot than this and the distance made the price. Roger B. did his best. His gait is about a mile in 1:42. The judges were hardly satisfied with Thorpe's ride on the latter and the boy was questioned about it. Prosecutor, badly shut off on the first turn, ran around his field and performed well. Albert S. was right there all of the way. He prefers weight off and a soft track. Midian hardly ran his race. He seems to be "an in and out," and in connection with this is given to attacks of bleeding.

Scratched—Harry Shannon, 108.

Winner—Ch. g. 3, by St. Blaise—Soubrette.
Start good. Won easily. Songster was easily the best at the weights. Is much improved and was extra good today. Charagrace closed strong. He got the best handling to which he owes second place. Tinge was poorly ridden throughout. Merlin was eased at the end and lacked speed.

Scratched—Taranto, 106; Concord, 106; Swamp Angel, 101; Endeavor, 101; Glonoine, 94.

Winner—Br. c, by Kingston or Burlington—Forethought.
Start straggling. Won driving. Federal was lucky and well handled throughout. He is a very fair colt. Mark Miles was badly handicapped by his jockey but ran his race. Leandro is a slow beginner. He finished strong and wants a route. Belle of H. closed a tremendous gap from a bad beginning. Lady Medlesome quit at the end after showing speed. Improvident, also a slow beginner, closed very strong and was eased at the end. Dan Cupid had no chance in the big field with such a jockey. He requires strong handling and a route. Spanish Main is a grand looker; had no chance at the start.

Scratched—Tennith, 107; May Landis, 104.

Overweights—Leandro, 1 pound.

Corrected weight—Leandro, 112.

7396 THIRD RACE—1 Mile. $600 added. 4-year-olds. Selling.

Winner—B. c, by Rotherhill—Bendova.
Start good. Won driving. Rotterdam was much the best, but was unlucky and interfered with by Chenille. Chenille is better than ever. She is only a sprinter. The pace was slow and the race a fluke. Swamp Angel is of no account apparently and Fitzgibbons is worse.

Scratched—Ben Ronald, 110.

Overweights—Rotterdam, 2 pounds; Fitzgibbons, 4.

Time, 12.23 1/4, 35 1/4, 1:01 1/4.

Winner—Br. m, 5, by Amphion—Starlight.
Start good. Won handily. Lambert was best but lucky. She finished very good and was the best weight carrier. Trolley dogged it as usual and always will if up against speed equal to her own. Autumn was very unlucky. Was pocketed the first three eighths but closed very strong. Was probably second best. He is a good colt and very game. Lady Marian, off badly, closed fast at the end. This is about her race. She is good. Orion appeared to be anchored by weight. He wants light burdens always. Hanwell was outclassed.

Scratched—Chum, 107; Athy, 106.

Time, 12.24, 36, 48 1/4, 1:02, 1:15.

Winner—B. c, by Phoenix—Glen Hop.
Start straggling. Won driving. Cormorant beat the gate and had nothing to press him the first part. Hence his victory. He is a fair colt. Ben Viking got away poorly and his rider never made a move until too late. He was possibly the best. Country Dance likes a route and light weight. She ran gamely, but is only very ordinary. Savory was outclassed. Neuburger lacked speed throughout.

Overweights—Holdup, 4 pounds.

7399 SIXTH RACE—1 Mile. $800 added. 3-year-olds and upward. Handicap.

Time, 25 1/2, 50, 1:15 1/4, 1:41.

Winner—B. f, 3, by Volante—Maori.
Start straggling. Won easily. Marito, off badly and pocketed for six furlongs, ran over her field in the stretch. She was easily the best at the weights. Dr. Catlett ran a fine race but his weight apparently anchored him although better results would have been realized by forcing the pace in the first part. Her Own ran a good honest race. Governor Budd will do over the jumps.

Scratched—Taranto, 100; Endeavor, 98; Banquo II, 106; Tinkler, 93.
